Lack of Enthusiasm For Any One Candidate or Policy at High School Saturday—Democratic and Republican Women Debate Smith and Wadsworth.

Mr. Lee said that the help of a League of Nations provided the best communications as would regard the constitution.

When Miss Roberts chairman announced Miss Dorothy Frank, candidate for the Republican nomination for congressman from this district took occasion to express her opposition to the nomination of that Charles R. Ward the Republican nominated candidate had been unable to make arrangements to speak because of a previous engagement. She spoke after her opponent had finished and said that she had been disappointed and as she had been in the district and that she had done nothing for the people and that a representative of the people should be elected.

PEDDLING her babies on the streets of Shanghai in the same manner as she would find it in the United States, except in which this Chinese mother is not so well paid for her wares. Any one passerby can buy one or two for a price that would be considered a good deal under the same conditions.

There have been cases of young mothers in America being lured by promises to sell their babies for "babies' faces" on legal transfers to the care of and up to permanent adopted persons. The same method here is on the level with any street basket peddling. The babies are sold into slavery in China.

Indifferent regarding the care of children or the preservation of their lives is a characteristic of non-Christian lands. It has been revealed through the means of the Interchurch World Movement in China as crime in the China Year Book, the deaths of infants are so small a matter of course that the search is given funeral. There is no one limit - the employment of children in Chinese industries.

Upon the character and financial condition of the first purchaser a court of law depends the future of these children - whether they will be sold into a good home or into slavery. The evangelical group of Protestant churches joined in the Interchurch World Movement have made the welfare of women and children one of the first of their objectives. Another objective is the educating of the backward races to develop their resources and improve their standards of living so that the street hawking of babies will be unthinkable.

ROSH HASHANAH BEING OBSERVED

All the stores of the Jewish merchants were closed in this city today. The feast of Rosh Hashanah, or Jewish New Year, was ushered in at sundown Sunday in all Jewish synagogues in the city. Today the Jews enter the year 5681 of their calendar, with services which are the most solemn of Jewish rituals. Orthodox Jews will fast and pray until sundown Tuesday, but reformed Jewry will end the feast at sunset this evening.

Tuesday, September 21, at sundown, will begin the Day of Atonement, or Yom Kippur, which also is a time of fasting and prayer. Jewish tradition has it that the destiny of each human being is sealed for good or evil on the Day of Atonement. The more devout Jews remain in the synagogues during the twenty-four hours of Yom Kippur, wrapped in their praying robes.

GAME LEADERS WON. They Beat Nationals 2-0 Thirty-seven Years Ago Today.

Kingston, the Old Colonial City, was well represented at Washington, D. C., the nation's capital, thirty-seven years ago today, September 13, 1893, when the Kingston Leaders, then the leading semi-professional baseball team of the country, defeated the Nationals of Washington, one of the strongest professional clubs of the United States at the time, by a score of 2 to 0. The game was played on the Nationals' grounds before a large attendance. The Nationals found it impossible to solve Dugan's curves and hit the ball, he being superbly supported by his teammates on the bases and in the field. Sam Gibson was great at first base and Myron Allen covered second base perfectly. As the Nationals and Leaders were retired in the ninth inning without scoring the interest in the game grew intense among the spectators. No runs were scored by either side until the ninth when the Leaders tallied two runs and retired the Nationals in their half of the ninth without a run, thus making the score at the finish, Leaders, 2; Nationals, 0.

A party of young ladies consisting of Anna and Clare Conway, Margaret and Nellie Burns, Anna and Frances Mathela, Lena and Carrie Morris, Kathryn Bulley, Elizabeth Hannon, Elsie DeGraff, Margaret Scherer, Harriet Freer, Margaret Ford, Libbie Nock, Sarah Gallagher and Barbara Long motored to the Sacred Heart Home at West Park on Sunday and spent a most enjoyable day through the hospitality of the good sisters at the home. They were chaperoned by Mrs. J. G. Reynolds and Mrs. M. J. Dulin.

O'Neil Gave Clambake. James J. O'Neil, superintendent of Dwyer Brothers' shipyard, gave a clambake and outing to a party of his friends Sunday. Mr. O'Neil being the chef, it was assured the chicken, lobster, blue fish and clams would be cooked to the queen's taste and no one was disappointed. After the dinner games were held and everyone pronounced Mr. O'Neil an ideal host. The party went to the outing in a private yacht chartered by Mr. O'Neil for the occasion. Guests were present from Gardiner, New York city and Kingston.

Two Traffic Violators. Chester Sauveur of Prattville was arrested Saturday afternoon by Officer Hess for parking his car on Railroad avenue. He gave bail for his appearance later.

Irving A. Ruskin of the Bronx, New York, was arrested Sunday morning by Motorcycle Officer Walker on a charge of speeding. He also gave bail for his appearance later.

KINGSTONS LOST TWO GAMES

Weak Hitting and Poor Fielding Gave Wappingers Falls 3-5 Victory Saturday and Hangeries Won 10-1 on Sunday.

The Kingston players were unable to turn the trick Saturday afternoon and again went down to defeat before the fast Wappingers Falls baseball team. The Kingston players were unable to locate the ball at opportune times and that coupled with loose playing throughout the game gave the Wappingers Falls team a second victory over Kingston. William, who was on the mound for Kingston, deserved a victory. Throughout the game the Kingston players lacked the real pep necessary to win, while the Wappingers Falls players were in the game every minute. Wappingers Falls started off with two runs in the second inning and again in the sixth three men crossed the plate. Kingston scored two runs in their half of the sixth when Kearney was safe on Leahy's error, Hornbeck walked and then Hub Coffey located the ball and drove out a double to right center, scoring Kearney and Hornbeck. Leo Fitzgerald made the other tally in the next inning when he shot out a single to right, stole second and went to third on Malsenholder's double and scored in Kearney's sacrifice fly to center. This ended the scoring. The team work on the part of Wappingers Falls was a feature of the game.

Again on Sunday Kingston was defeated at Hangeries by the score of 10 to 1. As on Saturday the Kingston players seemed to lack the pep necessary to win. Ebers who was on the mound for Kingston had a hard time of it but a little support by the other members of the team would have resulted in a much lower score. Suggesties plays here Saturday and the Kingston players are already planning to give them some reception and try and even up the stinging defeat of yesterday.

OTIS RAILROAD BEING JUNKED

Barney Millers and Sons, the well known junk dealers of 41 Meadow street who purchased the abandoned Otis incline railroad at Fallville have contracted with Reeser Brothers of West Hurley and Louis Dyer of Kingston to move the 1 1/2 mile of rails to the roadway at the foot of the incline. The big steel trestle which is nearly 600 feet long and 60 feet high, located an eighth of a mile from the mountain house at the top of the incline, has been purchased by a New York party and is to be loaded on cars at Haines Falls and taken to New York city where the steel will be used in reinforced concrete on large structures. The work of taking down the steel trestle has been contracted for by the same parties and will be started at once.

The Otis incline railroad was once one of the show places of the Catskills and is known throughout the country. Thousands of people have ridden on the Otis and for years it was a well paying proposition. Several years ago it was abandoned along with the Catskill Mountain railroad which ran from Catskill up into the mountains.
